

news2you™

REAL NEWS. Real conversations.

Wherever students are learning, spark rewarding conversations with their peers and families through the high-interest texts in News2you. Build language, literacy, and critical-thinking skills in unique learners, struggling readers, and English language learners as they complete standards-based current events activities. In addition, help students succeed beyond school by developing essential life skills and presenting them with career options.

Foster a real SENSE OF BELONGING

CREATE MEANINGFUL REAL-WORLD CONNECTIONS

Broaden horizons with high-interest nonfiction and build the essential skills for participating in today's conversations and tomorrow's world. Help unique learners find their own place and make lasting connections with their peers and families by exploring current events and other topics that inspire meaningful discussions.

ENRICH DAILY INSTRUCTION WITH DIFFERENTIATED CONTENT

Promote greater achievement by meeting readers at their individualized, age-appropriate levels with captivating informational texts, including feature stories differentiated to four reading levels with universal symbol support from SymbolStix PRIME®.

BUILD LANGUAGE AND LITERACY SKILLS

Boost daily literacy development with a wealth of rich activities connected to the week's issue. Strengthen digital and media literacy with access to news content and related stories online as well as useful services like dynamic maps.

